TEMPERANCE AT THE BAR

Law of Heredity Invoked In Court.

Wives Allege Infamous Conduct of Their Husbands.

Public Works Contract Under Review By Supreme Court, Etc.

A strong temperance sermon was delivered by Attorney C. C. Bittling in Judge Gear's court yesterday afternoon. An objection had been made to one of his opening questions of an elderly man who had just taken the witness stand, on the familiar ground that it was "Incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial," when Mr. Bittling argued in this strain:

"I never wish to take advantage of counsel or court. What I desire to prove by this witness may seem to have no bearing on the case, but I intend to connect it with other evidence in a way that will make it material. As I cannot carry all my evidence at my fingers' ends, it will be necessary to produce one link in the chain at a time.

"It is my purpose to show that the father of this witness was excessively addicted to the use of intoxicating drink. Further I shall show that this man, grandfather of that girl (pointing toward a principal figure in the case at bar), and his brother were, by a court of competent jurisdiction, placed under guardianship on account of incompetence to manage their own affairs brought about by their excessive indulgence in intoxicating drink.

"Then I shall place on the stand able experts to prove, from their professional experience and the teaching of science, that mental disease is transmitted by intemperate parents to their offspring for several generations—that the kind God punishes innocent children for the sins of their fathers."

The matter was the petition of Mrs.
Annie Kentwell to annul the marriage of Albert Christian with Eliza Holt Christian, on the ground that it was brought about by undue influence wrought upon the girl's weak mind.
Complainant is a near relative of Mrs.
Christian and brought the suit about eight months ago. Her attorneys are C. C. Bittling and Robertson & Wilder, though in court yesterday the first-named appeared single-handed, with Cathcart & Milverton and C. W. Ash-ford arrayed against him for the husband.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realized from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way.
Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. A humbug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood, and cures Anemia, Scrofula, Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It is a scientific remedy and a food with a delicious taste and flavour. One bottle convinces. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

vent was one of the witnesses and testified that Eliza Holt, while attending the convent school before marriage, had "an undeveloped mind." In conversation the child wandered abruptly from the subjects on which she was addressed. A peculiarity was an exceedingly jealous regard for her own eating utensils—spoon, mug, etc.— which she would never allow anyone else to touch. Yet she remembered the names of her schoolmates and acted rationally enough in minor matters.

There was much wrangling between counsel over questions and answers, also verbal distinctions. The hearing occupied the day, yet is little more than begun.

UNSPEAKABLE BRUTALITIES.

Judge De Bolt granted a divorce to Becky Kaluna against Ben Kaluna on the ground of extreme cruelty. The complaint thus succeeding contained a pitiful tale of woman's suffering from man's brutality. Kicking his wife in the abdomen, gouging her eyes and breaking her leg with a club were among the instances of the husband's atrocities.

Lono Keanini has brought a libel in divorce against John Keanini, alleging extreme cruelty, desertion, failure to provide and criminal infidelity. One Meleana is named as his partner in guilt. The allegations of cruelty are horrible in detail. After a statement that the parties were married in Honolulu on Dec. 1, 1899, the libellant says:

"That shortly after the said marriage said respondent began to treat libellant with extreme cruelty, and for over a year thereafter continued to so treat libellant; that during said period of one year, at intervals of a few days, respondent either beat libellant with his fists, kicked or otherwise ill treated her, and that more particularly on or about the first day of January, A.
D. 1901, without cause or provocation, respondent made a brutal attack upon libellant, and beat her upon the head and face with his clenched fist, kicked her in the abdomen with his feet, he then having heavy shoes on, and dragged her over the floor by the hair of her head; that in consequence of said ill treatment as aforesaid libellant became ill, was confined to her room for several days and by reason of the wounds and bruises inflicted by respondent on the face of libellant she was unable to leave her home for two weeks."

SUPREME COURT CASES.

The injunction suit of John Lucas against C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, and Hawaiian-American Engineering Co., to enjoin the Brewer's wharf and shed contract, was argued and submitted before the Supreme Court yesterday. W. A. Kinney appeared for plaintiff; M. F. Prosser and D. L. Withington for defendants.
In the assumpsit suit of Thomas Mullen vs. John Walker the plaintiff by his attorney, T. McCants Stewart, has filed an appeal to the Supreme Court from Judge Robinson's decision setting aside service of summons on the ground that the copy served did not bear the court's seal.

MINOR'S ESTATE GROWS.

The fifth annual account of F. W.
Macfarlane and August Ahrens, guardians of the property of George Richardson, a minor, was approved yesterday by Judge Robinson, together with the master's report thereon by M. T.
Simonton. Receipts were $18,342.35 and payments $17,090.75, leaving a balance of $1,251.60. Capital receipts amounted to $6800, while $10,000 was invested in Pioneer Mill Co. 6 per cent bonds. Attention is called to the fact that this investment exceeded the amount ordered by the court to be so invested, but the master says:

"While it is doubtless within the scope of the master to recommend that the guardians be surcharged with said sum of two thousand dollars, still the master does not feel justified in so doing, being cognizant of the careful management of the ward's affairs by the present guardians. From investigation made and from information given, the master finds that the investment in the bonds of said Pioneer Mill Company, Limited, by guardians or trustees, is almost unanimously considered as a commendable and safe investment. The master would therefore recommend that the further investment here noted be approved by your Honor."

Income receipts were $11,542.35, and disbursements $2398.38. Since closing the account the guardians have remitted $559.03, balance of the ward's school bill from Rev. A. H. Brown of St. John's School for one year. This and another small matter go over to next account.

COURT NOTES.

The order of default entered against John F. Colburn, one of the sureties on E. V. Richardson's bond, was yesterday rescinded by Judge De Bolt. The motion of the Superintendent of Public Works to strike Colburn's demurrer from the files was set for argument at 10 o'clock this morning.

Victoria Ward by her attorneys, Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, has filed a motion in her suit to foreclose mortgage against Alapake Kawaue that the defendant be declared in default.

THE COMMISSION CANCELED AS VOID

Senator Clarence L. Crabbe's commission as chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners was cancelled yesterday by direction of Acting Governor Atkinson, as being contrary to Section 16 of the Organic Act, providing:

"That no member of the legislature shall, during the term for which he is elected, be appointed or elected to any office of the Territory of Hawaii." No resignation was necessary, the commission being void. The appointment was made inadvertently by the Superintendent of Public Works, who was not at the time aware that the prohibition of the Organic Act was so strict as to exclude honorary offices.
There is no salary attached to the office of Fire Commissioner, chairman or not, but the law as quoted above makes no difference for that fact.
